IAFIE - EUROPE Newsletter No. (1)- Feb 2017

Chair Welcome

IAFIE's European Chapter now has its own newsletter. Besides our conferences this is our main channel of communication. How well it works will depend on the members, who can use this platform to exchange ideas, elaborate on courses they have given, review books that are relevant to our field of study and announce conferences, workshops and other meetings that are worth attending. Please, send your ideas to the editors of the Newsletter : Mohamed Gaballa and John Nomikos through iafie.europe@gmail.com

INTELLIGENCE STUDIES IN A TIME OF EUROPEAN CRISIS: CALL FOR PAPERS

This conference will mark IAFIE Europe's second annual gathering outside the Western Hemisphere, where participants from the five Continents will build on the success of our first European meeting in Breda, Holland, last year. We will mark the continuing growth of the intelligence studies academic field in Europe and will ask ourselves a number of central questions. Such as, what is the role of intelligence studies at a time of crisis in Europe. Panels of the Two-day conference examines:

Mission Statement of the IAFIE – Europe

IAFIE is the leading international organization for intelligence education, established in 2004 in Pennsylvania. Its mission is to advance research, knowledge and professional development in intelligence education. The chapter for Europe is founded as a result of the clear need among intelligence educators in Europe to promote intelligence studies that take the specifics of European intelligence requirements, principles and methods into account. The chapter is open for all those in Europe who wish to further the goals IAFIE has set for itself and its members, both from academia and education.
