At a time when a considerable section of the Islamic world has come under the sway of “Caliph” Erdogan, the Republic of India has come up from under the haunting shadows of the most gruesome of Muslim invasions by restoring the Ram Temple in Ayodhya for the indigenous majority whose iconic place of worship was destroyed and converted to a mosque along with thousands more. The razing of the Ram Temple and raising a mosque over it was done during the rule of Babur, the first Mughal king. When the Turks and the Mughals were carrying out the bloodiest conquests in India, their cousins the Ottoman Turks led by ‘Mehmed the conqueror’ invaded Constantinople in 1453 CE and Hagia Sophia ceased to be the spiritual heart of Orthodox Christianity. 916 years of church service was forced to a rapacious end and “Holy Wisdom” became a mosque symbolizing Muslim conquest and Constantinople was named Istanbul.

In 1934, Turkish President Kemal Ataturk, unmosqued Hagia Sophia into a museum. He wanted to underscore the secular nature of a newly independent young Turkey and be seen sharing common cultural and civilizational values with the West. The Muslim Brotherhood deeply resented his move and mindset. But they were not able to challenge his decision. So, they thought it prudent to wait for the time when they would have their man in power who would correct this kufir (infidelity). As India sets out to right one of the multifarious wrongs perpetrated by the Islamist invaders, with khilafat<sup>1</sup> rising in Turkey, the caliph aspirant Erdogan has converted the Hagia Sophia into a mosque.

On 13-14 February 2020, this Khalifa<sup>2</sup> handpicked by the Brotherhood visited Pakistan on a two-day visit. Bearer of the red Ottoman flag green signalled the mob in waiting across the border. In his fourth address to a joint session of the Parliament in Islamabad, Erdogan recalled how during the First World War people from present-day Pakistan galvanised in support of the Turkish people, Erdogan referred to a public rally in Lahore which he said was led by Allama Iqbal... “Events that happened a hundred years ago in Canakkale<sup>3</sup> in Turkey are being repeated in Indian occupied Kashmir and Turkey will continue to raise its voice against the oppression.[“] “Today, the issue of Kashmir is as close to us as it is to you [Pakistanis],” he said, reiterating Turkey’s support for Kashmiris. “No distance can build a wall between the hearts of believers. If there is torture against any believers in the world, it's our duty to help them.” ... Erdogan also said: “Our Kashmiri brothers and sisters have suffered from inconveniences for decades and these sufferings have become graver due to unilateral steps taken in recent times...<sup>4</sup>

Although Erdogan was addressing the people of Pakistan, he was effectively speaking to the Muslims on the other side of the border. Within days of having sent out this message to the intended parties, parts of Delhi and her outskirts were engulfed in the fire of destructive anti-majoritarian riots resulting in terrible loss of life, property and communal harmony. Mid-December 2019, a large group of cross-sectarian Muslims had gathered in Shaheen Bagh to cause massive disruptions, in a huge clamour show of the mob-muscle endorsed by the glamour of Mumbai’s showbiz and intellectuals schooled by Lutyens<sup>5</sup>. In violation of law and order and refusing to pay any heed to the Supreme Court trying to bring them to their senses, as it happens, for almost three months the mob held parts of the city under siege, which was followed by a week of riots. Every sell-out Media outlet waged an all-out war against the will of a sovereign nation which is fully authorized to decide on her internal matters unilaterally. The Caliph, however, has one rule for himself and the believers from his creed and another for the infidel. But of course, personal interests of the Lutyens lobbies had to supersede that of the nation. They demonized the fully constitutional Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA) by the Government of India to give refuge to the severely victimized non-Muslims living in neighbouring Islamic countries. The Mainstream Entertainment & News Media, furthermore, sanitized the seditionist movement of Shaheen Bagh bankrolled by India's enemies to protest this Act. Instead, they hallowed the arsonists, murderers and looters as the victims in this tragedy. Shaheen Bagh and the eventual anti-Hindu riots is a prime model of the "Wrap-up Smear"<sup>6</sup> tactic clearly inspired by Saul Alinsky's Rules for Radicals. This code of conspiracy cooked up a storm of perceived grievances of age-old persecutors to malign and hurt the peaceful majority that has for centuries bled at the blade of the conquest-horny hordes. Unfortunately for them, the Hindus have survived the longest resistance Islamists have faced anywhere in their 1400 plus years of murderous history beginning with the murder of their Prophet soon followed by the brutal killing of his daughter, Fatima.

<sup>5</sup> Lutyens' Delhi, a small but important part of the metropolis of New Delhi was designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens and Herbert Baker. Lutyens was largely responsible for its architecture during the Raj. In one of his books, Pavan Varma, a former diplomat remembers Lutyens’ Delhi as a bureaucratic city symbolizing power rather than money. It is home to senior politicians, bureaucrats, old elites, and media hawks that perpetuate the Babu culture in the former British colony. This space of centralized power in the hands of the few is a deep-set cabal of political brokers in the heart of India’s deep state. Lutyens’ is an infamous brand for manipulative deal-maker/breaker bureaucrats, journalists, NGOs, retired defence officials, and fixers. While some are on the payroll of the intel agencies of other countries, others are planted deep into the clique to religiously override the interest of the nation. All the parties that share the Lutyens’ spirit, work in unison against the interests of India.

The Red-Duo is expanding world over at a dizzying speed. One is the red flag of the Ottoman Turkey and the other is emblematic of the CCP. The Red-Duo is playing havoc in penetrating the pivotal pillars of foreign countries esp. India and USA. By virtue of being the strongest democracies the two bastions of liberty are the most decisive battlefields for the Red-Duo. Both the godless CCP and the caliph of god are supported by the god-damned Muslim Brotherhood. Of course, the Khalifa is the recipient of the Brotherhood's wholesale blessings as he and his over-extended family continues selling the oil ISIS terrorists beholden to their Sultan/Khalifa keep stealing from Syria.

The many links in the long arm of the MIT (Milli Istihbarat Teskilati), Turkey's National Intelligence Organization, notorious for its encroachment, entrenchment and engagement operations in foreign territories, actively woo university students to get them under its wing as informers, field agents, activists, and agent provocateurs. One of the MIT's primary goals is the infiltration/control of the mainstream Muslims, both Sunni and Shia who are still indulging a heavy hangover from the Khilafat<sup>7</sup> Movement. In India, this anti-British agitation (1919 -24) was led by prominent Islamist clerics for the restoration of the Ottoman Khilafat. The movement ended in disaster as the caliphate was abolished in March 1924. Pakistani ISI coordinated MIT field agents are having a field day with the vast religious networks of both the Sunni and the Khomeinist Shias in India. For years, umpteen covert human intel sources have been fostered in multiple levels throughout complex socio-religious paradigms of doctrinally different yet essentially united sects of the Muslims in India that are trained to inflict open festering wounds and deep injuries to the intranational security composure.

“The caliphate has arrived at the Turkish Parliament. The government has been doing what is needed. If Tayyip Erdogan switches to a presidential system, he will probably appoint counsel[1]ors to Muslim territories, to the territories faithful to the caliph...” said political Islamist Dilipak at a conference in Toronto in 2015.<sup>8</sup> Abdurrahman Dilipak, a journalist, is a secret intelligencer of MIT. The agency has its tentacles hooked deep within the critical institutions of every country of target, be it the USA or India. Many of his league and job description are active in India. Mr. Abdullah Bozkurt, the Turkish journalist currently living in exile is a man of courage and candidness who is also the Director of the Stockholm Center for Freedom. He writes about Dilipak’s closeness to Erdogan. Amongst many other things that he mentions about Erdogan’s caliphate campaign, Bozkurt says that Dilipak happens to be one of Erdogan’s chosen religio-political agents assigned with the task of propagating the “resurrection” of the caliphate in the tone and terminology of the caliph aspirant inside Turkey and abroad.

MIT-ISI connection has their man/woman everywhere – in the Bureau-rats, paid agents/actors posing as journalists and their spouses, oily media houses, hardcore communists, the SJWs, lawyers, Islamist activists, politicians, corporate bigwigs, diplomatic attachés/missions and artists from a cross-section of society particularly Bollywood. There is hardly any section of society not at risk of being infiltrated &/ compromised.

Shah Rukh Khan has taken his children to Istanbul, Turkey for a vacation, and says it is among one of the three places his father wanted to visit with him. “My father always wanted me to visit Kashmir, Rome and Istanbul<sup>9</sup> with him. He is not around so taking my kids to these places. He will be pleased,” he posted on Twitter.<sup>10</sup>

In the 2014 Zeev Schiff Memorial Lecture held annually, Shimon Shamir<sup>11</sup> noted, “In a question posted on his website (islamonline.com) on December 2, 2002... Qaradawi answered that the present situation is only a transitory stage. A hadith of the Prophet, he said, predicted that Muslims will capture the two world-capitals – Byzantium and Rome. The first part of this prophecy had already been fulfilled by the Ottomans, who occupied Constantinople and converted it to a Muslim city. The second part, the conquest of Rome – Rome being a symbol of the West – is beginning to materialize in our time. Yet, Qaradawi pointed out, unlike the occupation of Constantinople<sup>12</sup>, which was executed by force, "Rome" will be Islamized by persuasion, with the help of the growing Muslim population in Europe. On this issue the Islamists differ only over one point: in their vision Rome, the West, will also be taken by jihad."<sup>13</sup>

The Lutyens gang, no matter which faith any of them may subscribe to, are essentially an unfaithful lot. Could it be that unbeknownst to them directly or otherwise the Muslim Brotherhood has owned them for some time now? In countries "of interest" like India, MIT-ISI nexus recruit people from all walks of life, because of their respective professions and strongly held anti-national views. After securing the chosen traitors and vetting their commitment to help break India, they are turned into assets and placed in appropriate spaces in the country's nervous system.

The Tablighi Jamaat "Society of Preachers" (TJ) of India enjoys "brotherly" relationship with Turkey and Pakistan. In the mid-1920s, TJ was born of the Deobandi school of Sunni Islam hailing from Deoband in North India. Post partitioning of India, the Deobandi school continued to be immensely active in Pakistan in that its madrassas produced terrorists, many of whom joined the Taliban, while others are engaged in jihad within Indian Kashmir and Afghanistan. The name later evolved to Dawah-cum-Tableegh<sup>14</sup> and Islah<sup>15</sup> in Arabic. Originally a revivalist movement TJ slowly took on a humanitarian hue. This hue has for long provided the Jamaat and its "brother" organisations amongst which are the many Sufi organisations in India, the perfect cover for their mission of mass producing hidden anti-nationals. They materialize on the socio-political scene of the nation according to the call of varying degrees of jihad given by those at the top of the food chain, as open subversives to capture the attention of the world and entertain the agenda of entities within and outside the geo-political borders of the country. Recently, we have seen how the TJ has waged war against India as supers-spreaders of Covid-19. The Shaheen Bagh code is configured to replicate as many times as required by the resurrecting caliphate. That is why the anti-CAA unrest and the rioters – who claim to have eternal subscription to a creed they demand be hailed as the Religion of Peace – were prepped, organized, funded and choreographed the way they were. This web of Islamist organisations across the board are extremely powerful and continue to grow even more being facilitated and felicitated by the politicians, bureau-rats and the mainstream Entertainment & News Media (MSM) yet suffering from the astigmatic vision of Jawaharlal Nehru.

The terror train destined for India is whistled off at Ankara, refuelling at Doha and Rawalpindi, makes its way to Kashmir; then running through the heart and hinterland reaches Kerala. Ongoing investigation into the unprovoked Delhi riots, will hopefully uncover the identities of actual masterminds and not simply close it with convicting those currently charged with conspiracy and execution of the same. Those charged are only foot soldiers of the colossal plot of Ghazwa-e-Hind<sup>16</sup>. With the surface properly peeled away, the ugly designs of the Red-Duo and their operatives will come to light. Follow the money, you will catch the terror train at the starting station and every stop along the route where money, men, and resources change hands.

On every May 29, the Turks... celebrates the capture by the sword of their biggest city from another civilization, take to the streets for grand ceremonies... live broadcasts in six different languages and the world's largest 3D mapping stage used to reenact the conquest... On June 4 Erdogan was addressing students at a theology faculty. In his speech he said: "When we look at the way Islam has spread to the world we see that it rather features the conquest of 'hearts' rather than conquest by the 'sword'... Look, now there is the Islamophobia malady in the West ... [Its] aim is to stop [the further spread of Islam]. But they will not be able to succeed."<sup>17</sup>

In late October 2014 Mr. Erdogan stated it was his "grand design to recreate the Ottoman caliphate with the help of the Sunni jihadist army."<sup>18</sup> This bane of a conquest obsessed mind is fully reflected in the behaviour of Ali Erbas, the chief imam and president of the Directorate of Religious Affairs of Turkey when he used an Ottoman sword of conquest to climb up the staircase to the pulpit of Hagia Sophia. Leaning on this sword, he delivered the first sermon given in the Hagia Sophia since its conversion.

The driving force in a conquest-horny psyche is the conviction that the invasion, desecration, looting and conversion of the sacred space of the faith of another by Muslims is applaudable and worthy of emulation. Islamization of everything and everyone considered "the other", the enemy, the infidel, is unimpeachable and irreversible. The infidel is worthless and so is everything of his. Therefore, no part of her/his civilization is worthy of existence or mention. Uniqueness of the indigenous civilization ought to be erased and its material assets appropriated by the ones who have a special mandate from Allah to rule the earth by encroaching upon the territory &/wealth of the other and bring the invaded into submission by death and coercion. To the conquest-horny minds even the very thought of reverting, revisiting, and righting the crimes perpetrated by their predecessors is incomprehensible, absurd and an absolute anathema. This warped vision is also accompanied by retrograde amnesia where the sick is unable to recall events that occurred before the Islamizing invasion which it glorifies as conquest and the sicko is only able to recall and relish the glory of gory annihilation and its aftermath.

Late Islamist preacher Kadir Misiroglu, known for his vicious criticism of Ataturk, unreserved support for Osama bin Laden and the 9/11 attacks, and zealous championing of caliph Erdogan made the outrageous declaration that “anyone who does not vote for Erdogan is the infidel”<sup>19</sup>. Iranians enjoy similar fatwas given by Khomeinist clergy in favour of Khamenei’s chosen candidates. A shameless anti-Semite, Misiroglu had applauded Erdogan for being “a statesman who defies the Jews,”<sup>20</sup>. Bozkurt writes<sup>21</sup> that the opponents of Sultan aspirant were slandered as Jews and Armenians. This xenophobe is said to have envisaged the destruction of Israel by the Ottoman caliphate. He believed that continuous aggression and varying intensity incursions into Syria and Iraq will pave the path for the “resurrection” of the Ottoman Empire and establishment of the caliphate.

In its 27 July issue, Gerçek Hayat (Real Life in English), owned by Government endorsed Yeni Safak daily, featured a red Ottoman caliphate flag on its cover that read, “Now Hagia Sophia and Turkey are free... Get together for caliphate. If not now, when? If not you, who?” Of course, Dilipak shared the cover on his Twitter account and the editor-in-chief, Kemel Ozer defended the cover. Fatih Nurullah Efendi, the leader of the Ussaki sect, said in a speech broadcast by Nurani TV that the Republic of Turkey, which was established in 1920, has ended and that the second Ottoman Empire has become a reality. “The leader of the second Ottoman Empire is Tayyip Bey... He is our first sultan,” said Nurullah Efendi. He also claimed that the new state that has been rising after a 100-year break... will be a continuation of the state established in Medina (by the Prophet Muhammad).<sup>22</sup> An AKP executive ‘Belma Erdogan said: “Our President [Erdogan] was sent by Allah, a hope for the Muslim ummah. Is there any other option but to follow him and serve his way? No there is not, and there should not be.” Earlier in 2017, Suat Unal, a board member of the AKP’s Aydın Efeler branch, shared a message on social media that Erdogan would be caliph by 2023 and that God would complete the divine light...”<sup>23</sup>

Erdogan is a staunch adherent of the Naqshbandi Tariqah, a major school of Sunni Sufism who derives their spiritual legacy and ethos from Abu Bakr, the first caliph of Muslims. Abu Bakr is the swindler who not only usurped the temporal leadership of Islam from Ali ibne Abi Talib, the son-in-law and successor of Prophet Muhammad, officially instated by the Prophet but also got his grubby paws on the estate of Fadaq, which is the inheritance of Fatima, the daughter and heir of Muhammad. A short while into his caliphate, Fatima's home was broken into, her door torched, the little house that opened into the Prophet's mosque was set ablaze by the thugs of the caliph and the roof brought down upon her by terrorists as per the orders and example of his key henchman, Umar bin Khattab, who clambered up onto the seat of the caliph after the demise of Abu Bakr. Umar, as history records, murdered Fatima with the backing of the caliphal establishment. Campaigns of conquering foreign lands initiated under the first caliph and was fanned into a fanatic frenzy by Umar, the architect of the "Pact of Umar". This "Pact" was bilaterally drawn and agreed upon by the invaders and the invaded! It remained the official guiding document for conquest-horny Islamists that authorized them to oppress, marginalize, discriminate, demonize and plunder "the other" in plain sight.

Prof. Dr. Numan Kurtulmus, the deputy chair of Erdogan's party observed: "Now we have in front of us Al Quds Sharif [Jerusalem], the legacy of Caliph Umar [Umar ibn al-Khattab, the second caliph of Islam], Saladin Ayyubid [the founder of the Ayyubid dynasty who captured Jerusalem in 1187 from Christian Crusaders] and Sultan Selim the Grim [Ottoman sultan who transferred the caliphate to the Ottoman dynasty in 1517], and it must remain in a corner of our minds," Kurtulmus said during a video conference organized by the Onder Foundation, the oldest alumni association of religious imam-hatip schools in Turkey.<sup>24</sup> The Nordic Monitor reports that in 2017 after his inspectorial visit to Hagia Sophia, Kurtulmus, then minister of culture and tourism, stated: "Hagia Sophia became a mosque as a result of Mehmed II – the right of the conqueror... I must reiterate the fact that the Hagia Sophia remains Sultan Mehmed the Conqueror's right by conquest."

Erdogan's tweets in Turkish and English, "conveyed a message of tolerance and pluralism". However, his personal Arabic-language Twitter account posted a graphic quoting sections of the speech that read: "The revival of Hagia Sophia [as a mosque] heralds the liberation of the al-Aqsa Mosque. The revival of Hagia Sophia is a new beginning for Muslims worldwide and heralds the end of the periods of darkness... The revival of Hagia Sophia is a greeting issued... from Bukhara to Andalusia. "The revival of Hagia Sophia – the trust of Sultan Mehmet the Conqueror – [arriving] 70 years after the renewal of the call for prayer, is a new revival [too long] delayed."<sup>25</sup> In his national address Erdogan said, “resurrection of Hagia Sophia” represents “the footsteps of the will of Muslims across the world to come out of the interregnum”<sup>26</sup>. “We are not only just Turkey, but also Damascus, Aleppo, Kirkuk, Jerusalem, Palestine, Mecca, and Medina,” said Turkish Interior Minister Suleyman Soylu during a rally.<sup>27</sup>

Alphabet agencies are fully cognizant of Erdogan’s designs and how the Muslim Brotherhood nominee for Caliph is marching towards a blood-bathed past and what it means for the world. Still, there is an eerie stillness amongst the leading nations except an obviously annoyed Greece. The Sultan of the rising Islamic State is completely exposed as far as his posture of indignant grievance and invader entitlement is concerned. He generously lends his posturing to the various state and non-state actors. For instance, a huge chunk of the Muslims in the Indian Subcontinent is enamoured with him. Millions of homes have Erdogan hanging on their walls, and Muslims across the sectarian divides hero-worship him as their Sultan-caliph. The West is seen as being a passive spectator and thus weak in resolve. Islamists perceive passivity and restraint as weakness and cowardice. Erdogan is confident he has nobody to answer to and therefore no fear of any consequences for his continually escalating aggression and trespasses. Although he has interfered in the internal affairs of Syria, Iraq, Yemen and Libya and is flaunting unusually contentious rhetoric in the Armenia-Azerbaijan conflict, there is hardly any attempt on the part of the free world to stop him. Simon Tisdall of The Guardian writes, “Erdogan problem has grown steadily worse... Indiscriminate repression at home, involving the jailing of tens of thousands of real and imagined opponents, has been matched by destabilising, Ottoman-revival adventurism abroad... Head-in-the-sand European leaders must surely realise their Erdogan problem cannot be ignored, dodged, or downplayed indefinitely... Turkey turning rogue is a very real, immediate and dangerous prospect. Nobody seems to have an Erdogan containment plan. One is increasingly required.”<sup>28</sup>

History teaches us that every time men have failed or refused to stand up to evil, they have had to pay immeasurably. And then you know as they say, “Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.”<sup>29</sup> Albert Pike may find this curious sluggishness of the West humorous.
