Recently, there has been a historic agreement between Saudi Arabia and India's Intelligence Agency RAW and from this I feel that it can become a problem for Pakistan in the coming times. Where on one hand Pakistan sees India as an enemy and on the other hand Saudi Arabia is the country which has been helping Pakistan every time it is in trouble. In such a situation, this deal between Saudi and India can become a problem for which country, it is a big question in itself. However, it seems that after this historic agreement between India's Intelligence Agency Research and Analysis Wing (RAW) and Saudi Arabia, RAW will get a big help in fighting the fight against terrorism. The agreement signed a few days ago has also got the approval of the Saudi cabinet. And the most important thing is that after this agreement, Saudi Arabia has become India's biggest ally in the Gulf countries in the fight against terrorism.

According to some media reports, an official statement has also been given by the cabinet of Saudi Arabia. According to this statement, the Saudi Security Agency will work with RAW to curb terrorist incidents and financial aid to terrorism. Information about this entire agreement has been officially given by the Saudi Gazette. According to this gazette, the country's cabinet, which was presided over by King Salman, has approved this agreement. This meeting took place at Al Salam Palace recently. According to the information given in the gazette, 'The Saudi cabinet, chaired by King Salman, at the Al-Salam Palace, approved the cooperation between the country's main security agency to counter terrorism and India's Research and Analysis Wing (RAW) on crime and terrorism. Approved a cooperation agreement related to stopping its funding.

However, we should not forget that there is also a defense agreement between Pakistan and Saudi Arabia under which thousands of Pakistani military officers, both serving and retired, still live in Saudi Arabia. In addition, Pakistan has a training agreement with Saudi forces. In such a situation, this agreement between the intelligence department of India and Saudi Arabia can become a major cause of tension for Pakistan.

My assessment why Pakistan, which is making noise on every small issue, is completely silent about this deal. This deal between India and Saudi Arabia is very important for both the countries because India has always been saying that many terrorists from Pakistan are present in Saudi Arabia. In such a situation, will this deal really bring a new problem for Pakistan because now India and Saudi Arabia have started thinking in the same direction in the matters of terrorism. Only time will tell what will be the output of this deal, but the coming of the intelligence department of both the countries on an international platform against terrorism only tells how important this agreement is.
