

RESILIENT CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE

2ND ZAGREB SECURITY FORUM 2017

6-7 March 2017, Hotel Sheraton, Zagreb, Croatia

PROGRAM

Page | 1

Day 1: Monday 6 of March 2017

13:30 Arrival and Registration

14:00 Opening Ceremony

Dr. Gordan Akrap, St. George Association, Zagreb

Prof.dr. Shlomo Shpiro, Bar Ilan University, Ramat Gan, Israel: A Year Between Two Zagreb Security Forums in review

Guests of Honour:

Lieutenant General Slavko Baric, PhD, Commandant of the Croatian Defence Academy

14:30-16:00 Panel I: Resilient Critical Infrastructure - national responsibility for achieving wider goals

Chair: Dr. Cees Wiebes, NISA, Netherland

Maja Čavlović, office of the President of the Republic of Croatia, adviser for national security and defence: Strategic overview of critical infrastructure and its significance for the Republic of Croatia

Aušra Semaškiene, Ambassador-at-Large for economic security policy, MFA of Lithuania, Co-chair of NATO Industrial Resources and Communication Services (IRCS) planning group

Senior Representative of National Coordinator for Security and Counterterrorism in Netherlands (NCTV): (Building) The Critical Infrastructure Between Expertise and Authority - Dutch Experiences with their Counterterrorism Alert System

16:00-16:30 Coffee Break

16:30-18:00 Panel II: Prevention, emergency response and crisis management

Chair: Dr. John M. Nomikos, Chairman, Research Institute for European and American Studies, Athens, Greece

Prof.dr. Shlomo Shpiro, Director - Intelligence Studies Program, Bar-Ilan University, Israel: Intelligence and Early Warning for Critical Infrastructure Security

Elad Gadot, CORPOSEC, Austria: Prevention Rather than Cure - Risk and Threat Mitigation

Dr. Laris Gaisner, ITSIME, Italy/Slovenia: Resilient Critical Infrastructure and Economic Intelligence in Cyber Domain

19:30 - Reception for Conference participants Dverce Palace, Katarinin trg 6

Day 2: Tuesday, 7th of March 2017

09:00-11:00 Panel III: Critical Energy Infrastructure - challenges and resilience

Chair: Prof.dr. Nenad Debrecin, Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Computing, University of Zagreb

Antonia Dimou, regional analyst with focus on Middle East and Islamic politics: Energy as an East Mediterranean Cooperation and Security Challenges

Gen. (ret) Ioannis Anastasakis, ROSED, Greece: The protection of national energy critical infrastructure - the case of Greece

Velimir Ostoić, Damir Kovač, Adriatic Security Solutions, Croatia: Oil & Gas Energy Sector: Proposal for a Real-time Crisis Management Decision Support Tools

Gen (ret.) Andre Ranson, IIHA, France: The 2014 Drone threat to nuclear plants in France: lessons learned.

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-13:30 Panel IV: Water – strategic source of life, threats, and challenges

Chair: Dr. Damir Bekić, Water Research Department, Faculty of Civil Engineering, University of Zagreb

Dr. Hakam Al Alami, advisor of HRH Prince El Hassan bin Talal on water and sanitation, Jordan: Water as a security tool and regional cooperation

Prof.dr.Thomas Wegener Friis, University of South Denmark: Danish security at North Pole - water and changes in Arctic

Dr. Pavle Kalinić, Office for Emergency Crisis Management, Zagreb: Water management in the City of Zagreb

Prof. Dr. Marc Cools, University of Gent: Critical infrastructure protection: the Belgian approach towards water supplies

13.30-14.45 Lunch

14:45-16:45 Panel V: Information and communication infrastructure - challenges and opportunities in cyberspace

Chair: NATO Cyber security CoE - tbc

Gen (ret) Yair Cohen, TSG IT, Israel: Cyberspace - a new medium of warfare, defence and global cooperation

Prof.dr. Darko Trifunovic, Fakultet bezbednosti, Srbija: Cybersecurity - virtual space as an area for covert terrorist activities

General (res.) Ephraim Lapid, Dr., Bar-Ilan University, Israel: OSINT, Cyber and energy infrastructure - challenges and opportunities

Hrvoje Sagrak, prof.dr. Slavko Vidović, INFODOM, Zagreb, Croatia: Cyberspace - source of advantages for smart networks.

16:45-17:00 Closing remarks and end of the Forum

Shlomo Shpiro, Bar Ilan University, Ramat Gan, Israel

Miroslav Tudjman, St. George Association, Zagreb, Croatia